Continuous-merits baseline; illustrative two-signal, two-offer grid. C = chance; repeated P/D numbers identify the same information set. Only chance probabilities are shown; no equilibrium is asserted. Subtree after both signals equal 0.25, filing, and answering. Exit choices take effect only if offers fail to settle. Terminal pairs are expected final wealth (P, D), with terminal lotteries integrated out.

